

A&A Office Systems acquires Nutmeg Business Products

Middletown, CT, May 1, 2007 – A&A Office Systems is pleased to announce the acquisition of Nutmeg Business Products, formally of Milford, CT. Nutmeg was a Savin dealer in New Haven and Fairfield counties and has a very loyal following of satisfied customers. Former Nutmeg customers will now enjoy the service response times and complete product portfolio that a larger organization like A&A Office Systems can offer. The acquisition was completed on April 27th and all existing service contracts for Nutmeg customers will be honored by A&A Office Systems. A&A also has taken over the space that Nutmeg was occupying at 116 Research Drive in Milford and will continue to have an office there.

A&A Office Systems has been in business since 1961 and offers the Ricoh/Savin digital copier product line as well as LaserFiche document management software and Fujitsu scanners. A&A is a locally owned and operated company and offers a premium service experience. A&A Office Systems covers the entire state of Connecticut and is a State of Connecticut contract vendor for digital copiers and a certified Small Business Enterprise.
